Suicide.

VIRGINIA, Sept 8—A young man named Parks, in the employ of Perkins druggist was found dead in bed in the Arlington House this morning. He left a note stating his life was a failure and he had taken prussic acid. No cause is known for the act

OREGON

Diphtheria, which has been a scourge for a long time about La Grande, is abating

Contributions at Eugene on Sunday for yellow fever sufferers amounted to about $150

Alexander, who was in jail in Union charged with the murder of Perkins has escaped

There is a good deal of sickness in Lane county Elder H G Davenport died on Sunday last

Citizens of Lebanon are subscribing liberally to aid the Albany and Lebanon telegraph line.

The Umatilla river for some distance below the Twelve Mile House is perfectly dry the water being lower than for many years

Union Sentinel, —th Immigrants have been passing through town this week in large numbers, and report hundreds of teams and families still coming

The Sentinel says The escape of murderers either by breaking jail or through the subtleties of the same have become so very common that we almost wish that Judge Lynch's law was more enforced It is cheap and effective.

Mrs. Sturtevant and son of Pilot Rock Umatilla county, were badly burned the other day The clothes of the little fellow who is three years old took fire while he was playing with matches The burns are severe, but both are recovering

Pendleton Independent From J H Sharon, who returned from Camas prairie recently we learn that the body of Campbell Berry has been found. The body had been horribly mutilated by coyotes and hogs, and was found nearly five miles from where he was last seen. It is supposed that he was wounded, got into the brush and finally starved to death.

James McDowell writes THE OREGONIAN from Drain's Station I see by your paper that several married men and their wives want a chance to work I take this method to let them know that I will receive bids from them to work on my farm for one year to begin with and I think we can agree on terms I have 630 acres of land, with plenty of timber and water

Lebanon letter On Friday evening last a couple of small boys, the sons of Mr David Williams, who lives about nine miles from town, conceived an idea that it would be sport to dislodge a family of yellow jackets who had their nest in close proximity to farmer Williams' grain stacks This they proceeded to do by applying a lighted torch to the nest. Mr Williams will have to buy his bread and seed until he can raise another crop, but was fortunate enough to save his barn and other buildings which were threatened by the flames

"SEND FOR MAGINNIS"

A WHOLE SOULED FRIEND OF THE WORKINGMAN

[From a speech by Tom Maginnis Candidate for Congress, at Newark, Ohio]

"Fellow laborers—Elect me to congress I'll do this for you when I get there You are entitled to 160 acres of land anyhow How are you going to get it? I'll tell you how. We will make greenbacks enough to pay the bonded debt of the nation This paid will save to the people $350 000 000 annually I'll take this money and give to every poor man who desires to go west with his family $1 000 to each of these sons of toil Thus I provide for 350 000 families annually I don't propose to give this as a present I propose to loan it without interest If these men can't pay it in five or ten years let them pay it when they are able. Some people say how are you to get these people there? You have no assurance they will go when his money is given them I'll tell you how Appoint agents all over the country one in each county Make it the duty of these men to purchase railroad tickets for those desiring to start, not transferable When they reach their destination I would have other agents there to provide for them—build them houses and barns, buy them horses and mules cows and sheep and hogs—not less than four brood sows for each family This is what I would do I'd bring sunlight to millions of my fellow laborers. By making them happy and prosperous I would at the same time be adding untold wealth to the nation God bless me my dear friends, it is no trouble to do this."

A Forcible Comparison.

[From the Troy (N Y) Times]

Lieut. E. W. Stone Jr, who is in charge of the commissary department of the expedition of Gen Howard against the Indians in a private letter says "We are ragged and dirty burnt and tired and a forlorn looking crowd Have not been where a paymaster could reach us and whoever has a dollar is a rich man We are living principally on bacon and brown sugar"

A Democratic congress says these men are an incubus upon the government It is determined to cut their numbers down from 25 000 to 10 000, and to increase their hard ships by doubling the work they are required to perform And yet this congress sends its roving commissions broadcast through the land, and supports them in luxury and ease We never heard of one of these Democratic committees looking ragged and dirty however forlorn its members may appear or if their living upon bacon and brown sugar The fat of the land is got at ... for them Their pockets are never empty so long as there is a dollar in the public treasury It contrast is suggestive

A man in Portland Maine the other ... was asked by a man of the greenback party "You start a bank and issue $100 000 in bills will keep on hand only $1000 in coin to redeem your bills can you all that redemption?" He replied There are over 40,000 people in Portland all of whom will need coffins some time but we have no need of 40 000 coffins on hand on hand

Gen. Joe J ... has been ... the ... from public life ... as he ... from ... he ... the ... of the ... congress ... a ... being ... to congress ... is ... in a fair way to be gratified

HENRY WARD BEECHER.

HIS LECTURES IN SAN FRANCISCO ON THE WASTES AND BURDENS OF SOCIETY ON WEALTH AND ON HARD TIMES — COMMUNIST AND DOCTRINE

I do not hesitate to say that the communistic doctrines that are afloat are the most baseless the most absurd of any doctrines that ever have originated in the volcanic brains of ignorant men [Applause] I do not say this because I have no sympathy with labor and the laboring man for I belong to the labor party and have belonged to it all my life long I was one of the early originators of it It is hereditary with me I have not a drop of blood in my veins that did not come from laboring people On my mother's side workers in leather and on my father's side workers in iron that is one reason why I am so tough I have always been proud of my blood and I am yet I know how the laboring classes feel and I have the deepest sympathy with them as part of my own history is entwined into theirs I have never forgotten that and when I do forget it, may I die When I see the multitude of perfidious philosophers coming over here from the dunghills of France and Germany, to breed mischief, I am a free man, that has a right to say on behalf of my own brethren, abhor it abhor it and stand far away from it, for in the long run society eases all its greatest evils upon the lowest classes A mistake in legislation at first may hurt the capitalist the strong man the rich man, but they very easily shift it It goes lower and lower, and when it stops it stops with the poor the weak the ignorant and therefore I say in respect of all these modern pestiferous heresies of labor, of production and political economy, I oppose them because I am a friend of the working people I am a friend of the men who have yet to lay the foundation of their prosperity I want these men to go up and when I see them attempting to climb those precipitous cliffs from the face of which they will surely first or last be dashed or tumbled to destruction, I stand and cry out not because I have no humanity but because I have so much

LAZINESS AND ITS PENALTY

No man or community had a right to stand between laziness and the penalty which God has put upon it Woe be to the community that undertakes to release its indolent members from the penalty of their laziness and mistakes I aver that in every nation that has ever risen from a low estate you shall find that they have come along the track of industry They have not only been industrious for the want of to day but for to morrow for next year, in youth for middle life, and in middle life for old age Productive wealth has been the fundamental law of education of the race

Laziness is the first type of savage life, to say nothing of large types of civilized life But the moment that men begin to exist together in households that moment they begin to need shelter, and they work for it To be sure there are some trees that are hollow and there are some caves, but they are bad places to bring up families in, and there are not enough of them anyhow The moment that a man built a house he developed property and the motive to develop property was a motive that countervailed indolence If he had ever so good a house he must have clothes and the pattern must be far more generous than that allowed in Paradise, and it required skill in the devising and creation of garments The second need drove men to industry to accumulate property And then he must have an accumulation of food and they began to lay up a little more and more especially where the seasons were rude The necessity of working in one period for the wants of the next is a rude but natural preparation of the whole race in foresight and the period of hibernating the long winter months with the necessary absence of field work and hours indoors, strengthens the qualities upon which is founded the household One of the results of the ministry of wealth is the development of the power of self denial All men are by nature lazy but then they have to deny themselves if they are going to have anything Men don't like to work when it is hot but they have to Men don't like to work when it is cold but they have to They don't like to work when it is wet, nor when it is dry [laughter] nor anyhow, but then their interests oblige them to do what they don't want to Man learns in the industries of society every single day to do what he don't want to do and to restrain from doing what he wants to do The law of society is practical self denial Men that are going down are practicing self denial of all that is good in them for the sake of bad and industries are full of it You will find that without exception the men who are riotous and turbulent and disorderly are lazy, they have not worked off their combativeness [Applause] You will find that the men that are law abiding and orderly are the men that are industrious, that have worked off their combativeness against the bosom of nature

INFLATION OF CURRENCY

Paper that is considered sound is what may be exchanged at par for gold It represents gold But unless you can commute it into gold at any moment it don't any longer represent it It is like a man sent to represent his constituents in the legislature and changing his mind when he gets there and representing himself not them All paper is as good as gold if when you change it you can get gold in its place at its face value and if you cannot do it it is so much the less valuable The benefit of paper is that it can be easily handled Well the government went into the war with paper not convertible into gold and it did not draw gold on demand, and that eminent statesman, General Butler has lately in an address delivered by him said that a currency that is good enough to carry the nation through the war is good enough to carry the nation on after the war Well that is very plausible but let me give you a parallel instance I tell you sir says a good citizen the doctor, he brought my wife through on calomel and quinine, and if it is good enough to take her through sickness then it is good enough to feed her on after she gets well

EVILS OF MONEY GOT WITHOUT EARNING IT

Nothing that experience determines is more injurious to men in this world than sudden wealth Men need to be tanned by the process of getting property to be tough enough to manage it after they have got it and green men that get money often get rid of it fast and it gets rid of them One of the most dangerous things in the world is suddenly to puff up a man with power and there is no power in such a dense form as money in the whole history of the human race Men work for $2 a day afterwards for $4 and $5 men work for $3 afterwards for $6 $7 and $8 And now the workingman who has been accustomed to think himself well paid when he gets $2 a day when he suddenly and without any change in his skill without rendering any equivalent greater than before finds that he is getting $6 a day why that to him a fortune, as great as that of a man who receive by ... at $6000 or $30000 I had rather have a son of mine struck with lightning than I ... have a person leave him $50,000 Either of them would kill him ... [illegible]

... labor? I speak that of which I know and about which I have made diligent inquiry There never was a time when for six or three times the wages so little and so poor work was done by the great mechanical mass of laboring men in the east as during the war and subsequently to the war Their work was slower and their hours were reduced and the men instead of being propelled by having a double wage were demoralized and they have not yet recovered from that demoralization

WATKINDS VS CHADWICK

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Mr W H Watkinds and Acting Governor S F Chadwick held long intimate personal and political relations under the six years administration of Governor Grover Allowing both to be possessed of ordinary powers of observation and discrimination each had ample opportunities to form a true estimate of the other's character both being honored members of the same great political party all of the ordinary probabilities would indicate that the utmost harmony should exist between two distinguished members of the same great cabinet That great philosopher Aristotle has told us that "It was a part of probability that many improbable things would happen" The implacable quarrel now existing between Messrs Watkinds and Chadwick has vindicated and verified a prediction made more than two thousand years ago by the Grecian philosopher and at a time when he could have had no personal knowledge of either of the parties to the present controversy If the unpleasant charges which Mr Watkinds has published against Mr Chadwick can be substantiated by the proofs then the acting governor has taken the wrong fork of the road and should be on his way to the penitentiary in place of the senate If Mr Watkinds from malice or any other cause has undertaken to blast or defame the character of Mr Chadwick by bringing false accusations against him, then he (Watkinds) should be branded in the most public manner as a base calumniator, and the acting governor would emerge from the contest purified by the fiery ordeal, still entitled to greater consideration and more worthy of promotion

This is a question in which the people of the state are deeply interested, and the legislature which meets next Monday has full power to adjust it and give us the truth by an investigation Mr Chadwick is a candidate for a seat in the United States senate Several notable precedents go to establish the fact that the people of this state are interested in having at least one honest member to represent them in that body

If what Mr Watkinds publishes of Mr Chadwick be true, no one will pretend that he would be a proper person to fill the high position to which he aspires, unless you reverse the old couplet

> "They take the good too good to stay
> And leave the bad too bad to take away

Therefore, in justice to Acting Governor Chadwick, in justice to Mr Watkinds and in justice to the people of this state, as well as justice to that distinguished body of which Mr C aspires to be a member let the legislature on the first day of its session appoint a committee authorized to make a full and fair investigation of these charges Let Mr Watkinds, Mr Dearborn, Gen John F Miller Col Teal and all others who have any knowledge of the facts, lay their hands upon the Gospel and tell how and what amount of money if any from the Lock Company or other sources surreptitiously found its way into Mr Chadwick's drawer or pocket.

Let Col Gilfry and Col Cann and others swear In the presence of God and these witnesses as to their knowledge about the money appropriated by the legislature being stolen by the medium of fraudulent vouchers signed by persons who did not render the services, while as alleged the money for which certain parties fraudulently receipted went into Mr Chadwick's pocket. I say, let these charges so publicly made and in which the taxpayers have so commanding an interest be thoroughly ventilated not to whitewash anybody, but in order to present to the people the naked truth No man ought to suffer from or be made the victim of false charges of corruption, and no man who is guilty of such practices is fit to be a senator If these charges made in the most public manner, are false—as I hope they are—it is due to Mr Chadwick that his character should be promptly relieved from the infamy which they imply It is also due to the people of this state that they should know whether a trusted and aspiring public servant has been guilty of offenses which should consign him to a felon's cell

Hardly a person connected with our state administration for the last twelve years has escaped the charge of corruption or peculation in one form or another Against some of these officials the charges have been sustained by judicial tribunals while in others the guilty were protected by the statute of limitation, so that no punishment has followed In most cases the partisan journals have disposed of alleged corruptions on the part of their friends by vague and windy denials or coarse recrimination of counter charges until the people hardly know who to trust while the state administration is brought into vile contempt The time has come when these charges should be thoroughly inquired into and legal provisions made to guard against their repetition

The statute of limitations as applied to defalcations peculation or embezzlement by officials ought to be extended to a period of years after the expiration of their official terms In some instances an act of official malfeasance perpetrated at the commencement of an official term would be barred by the statute before the incumbent went out of office with his facilities for covering up his tracks his delinquencies are only likely to be discovered by his successor The case of the state of Oregon vs Sam May illustrates what I am driving at

Experience has demonstrated that the interests of the people require the code against official delinquents who are peculators embezzlers or public thieves under some other name should be sharp, strong and decisive and the convictions should be followed by the severest punishments

A severe statute upon that subject can harm no honest officials We should have less charges of corruption if the gates of the penitentiary stood always slightly ajar for the ready reception of thieving officials

Forgot he was Married

[From the Danbury News.]

He had been in the habit of standing on the curbstone in front of the church after service and waiting for his girl As he prided himself greatly on his politeness in public places he invariably even after their betrothal stepped up to her and doffing his hat requested permission to see her home The first time that they went to church together after they were married they were unable to secure seats together This however did not worry him He secured a seat for his wife and ... his old quarters by the stove and among some of his old cronies After the service was over he absent mindedly walked out with the boys and took his old stand on the curbstone With flashing eyes and glowing cheeks out came his wife She would have passed him in ... but he ... and raising his hat said "Miss R— may I have the pleasure of walking with you?" He had the pleasure of knowing that he was ... when she ... on your hat and come along"

THE SAFETY OF THE STATE FUNDS

PORTLAND Sept 7 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I was much pleased to read in THE OREGONIAN of Sept 6th an article under the heading of "Security for State Funds" and I think that the whole press of the state irrespective of politics could well advocate the passage of such a law as your article indicates The first duty of the state is to secure that its funds raised by taxation from rich and poor alike are perfectly safe It is true the state treasurer gives bonds for the safe keeping of the funds in his hands but this bond is given when a new treasurer goes into office, at which time all the appropriations are so nearly exhausted that the money on hand is a comparatively small amount The bond then given, is in proportion to the funds on hand at that time but is given for a period of four years Now a short time after that bond is given the different counties pay their proportion of the state taxes into the state treasury and then the amount of money on hand often exceeds the amount of bonds by the treasurer Hence the bond itself is not a strong enough safeguard Besides a bondsman may be financially sound when a new treasurer goes into office but may be very far from it before the four years of the treasurer's term expires Therefore there ought to be a better protection than a mere bond

During the late canvass it was charged that Mr Brown the state treasurer went into office owing some $10 000 private debts all of which he liquidated out of the profits of the office It has often been stated that Mr Fleischner the former treasurer cleared during his term of office from the profits of the office $100 000 and more Now if these be facts then either the amount of money in the treasury must have been much larger than the bonds given by the treasurer, or else the money must have been used in hazardous enterprises to bring about such profitable results because if the money in the treasury had been loaned upon unquestionable securities the result could not have been as remunerative to them Investments which by such large returns are always hazardous and will finally lead to disaster We may escape it for years and it may happen at any time to this state as it happened to Missouri and New Jersey lately Against it the legislature ought to guard the state It will also accomplish another thing namely stoppage of wrangling over the fattest office in the state where a man with a salary of eight hundred dollars per annum is enabled to clear from forty to a hundred thousand dollars and more in four years

TAX PAYER

LABOR-SAVING MACHINES

In several of the eastern states there has been a genuine manifestation of the mob spirit that possessed the stupid English workingmen who destroyed the mills which first attempted to utilize cotton spinning machinery Probably the sons and grandsons of the same European vandals From the Philadelphia Commercial List we copy the following

The gross injustice of the outcry against machines for saving labor which is heard from time to time in various portions of the country can easily be shown by taking the statistics furnished by a single one—the reaper In the United States this machine was first put in practical operation in 1850 in which year there were 1 301 853 farmers and agricultural laborers within the limits of the 12 principal states where it has since been introduced In two decades up to 1870 this number of practical agriculture had increased to 2 64 830 more than double the number employed at the time of its introduction Wages too as will be seen kept steady pace with the advance of this labor saving machine Eight dollars per month was the average pay of farm hands in 1850 and in harvest time they were paid from 50 cents to $1 50 per day In 1870 the farm hands received $15 a month while the harvest hand was paid from $2 to $2 50 per day This shows plainly that the fear unthinkingly or ignorantly expressed that labor saving machinery is largely responsible for hard times and want of work has no foundation and events prove that all attempts to suppress their use by violence will only have the effect of creating a larger demand The manufacture of the various reaping machines is being more widely extended giving employment to thousands upon thousands of skilled workmen This year in spite of the depression of all kinds of business farmers are gladly paying $1 50 to $ 50 per day to hands employed during harvest Let the laborer examine the facts and he must inevitably come to the conclusion that labor saving machinery so far from reducing wages has stimulated and doubled them during the last twenty years Here and there an honest workman may ignorantly think differently, but on examination it will be found that the outcry comes from the communist tramps infesting the highways and byways who never did and never will except by compulsion do an honest day's work

REVIVAL SERVICES IN SEATTLE

SEATTLE Sept 7 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I claim your courtesy for a brief line anent the above subject It would be discreditable in the highest degree to the intelligence common sense and knowledge of scripture truth of a very large number of the Christian people of this town to have the impression go abroad unchallenged that the services of H W Brown the "Evangelist" are universally or even generally acceptable The impression left upon a large number of those who have heard Mr Brown (good Christian people of clear judgment) is one of ineffable disgust An ignorant man himself he inveighs incessantly against an educated ministry characterizing (to give you a sample) D D s as "dead dogs" etc Low coarse jests and buffooneries together with highly improbable stories which keep the house in continual merriment form the staple of the performances as far as he is concerned The music vocal and instrumental) furnished by the united ... of the city is of a high order and would of itself insure full houses To this in a great measure, is to be attributed the good audiences Mr Loue's gushing letter which appeared in your paper a few days ago represents matters from his standpoint As an impartial journalist you will I am sure be ready to recognize the principle of audi alteram partem or hear the other side

Enclosing my card I beg to subscribe myself in the meantime

Fooling the Colored Brethren,

[Washington Telegram to Chicago Tribune

The following is an extract from a speech made by a Democratic lawyer to Charleston S C to a colored audience, which has found its way to Republican headquarters

Each of you represent $900 You would have brought that in 1860 You were freed without our consent, and now if you will vote the Democratic ticket we will make the Yankees pay for you and then we will give you half of the money There stands old Uncle Jim He has a wife and eight children for which the north will have to pay $9 000 one half of which I will give him, and the rest I keep Then he will not be dependent upon charity This my dear colored friend is the practical solution of the forty acres and a mule idea, and you will some day be lifted from your poverty by your old masters Only vote the Democratic ticket and we will soon be independent of the contemptible Yankees.

"Gath" Tooting for Grant.

[Letter to Cincinnati Enquirer]

Grant is splendidly endowed with enemies His opponents never were his enemies He will poll half a million votes on account of his enemies who have railed not in vain Laving stung the people to sympathy for the little boy that rode the horses that nobody else could ride Those voiceful villains whose homes were protected by this quiet steady fellow when the rebel vanguard appeared on the Susquehanna, they take courage now and would strip him of the dim stars that appear on his old coat shoulder The same kind of patriots were volunteers to contribute vinegar to Christ after his work was done Make room for Grant's enemies among the Republicans! They are worth half a million votes

Solemn News for Thurman.

[From the Charleston News and Courier

Our firm belief is that the Northern Democracy will find it next to impossible to win 1880 on any sort of soft money platform particularly the Ohio platform of which Mr Thurman is the champion On the other hand the Democracy with the united south can elect their candidates on the platform of hard money and home rule

New System of Wagon Brakes.
TRULLINGER PATENT BRAKE.
NO SHOES TO WEAR OUT TIRES!
No Brake Bar used. Will hold a Wagon anywhere from Backing or going Forward.

THIS NEW BRAKE NOW BEING INTRODUCED by the inventor J C. Trullinger is a combination of friction gear applied to the hub of a wagon. It is simple and light yet has more strength and durability than any other wagon brake now in use. It is so attached to the wagon that it is out of the way of the gearing yet always reliable and at hand when required Any teamster or mechanic can see at once its utility and effective force to hold a load on a down grade or to prevent horse backing when required The Brake is made entirely of iron no wooden part being necessary as no brake bar is used, hence it does not carry mud and is not affected by wet and muddy or icy roads.

We invite critical examination, as we believe its merits can be demonstrated to any party who uses or understands a wagon brake

TUESDAY MORNING SEPT 10 1878

RESOURCES OF COOS BAY

The committee appointed by the citizens of Coos county to compile statistics of the commerce and resources of Coos Bay have submitted a very comprehensive and interesting report. Value of exports reaches a magnitude which will astonish those who are unacquainted with the industries and resources of that very important part of our state The figures at hand cover only the period since the beginning of the year 1871 but we find that during seven years and eight months the total value of exports has been $3 192 451 75 Of this aggregate the sum of $2 924 138 75 represents coal and lumber in what proportion of each the report unfortunately does not inform us The remainder is made up of miscellaneous products Ship building has for a number of years been a very important industry at Coos Bay Indeed this is the only point in the state where the building of sea going vessels has assumed the form of a regular business It is stated, and we believe with truth that the vessels built there show less signs of decay than is usual with vessels of the same age built elsewhere —a fact which establishes the strength, durability and general excellence of Coos Bay timber In quantity the timber is practically inexhaustible For spars, knees planking and ship timber of every description there is scarcely a point on the Pacific coast prolific as this coast is in superior timber, which equals Coos Bay This is admitted by all who have visited that locality and given the subject any attention Forty vessels of all classes have been built at Coos Bay, the largest of which was the ship Western Shore of two thousand tons, the finest vessel yet built on the Pacific coast. The arrivals and departures at Coos Bay from the beginning of the year 1871 to the end of August, 1878 embraced 1 388 vessels with a carrying capacity of 565 550 tons. Depth of water at the entrance of the bay is not less than formerly, vessels of thirteen feet draught have no difficulty in taking out cargoes—but the development of the coal trade elsewhere, with the use of vessels of larger capacity in such trade puts Coos Bay at a disadvantage since competition cannot be carried on with profit in vessels of the small class which are able to take cargoes from that place The only possible remedy is the improvement of the harbor so as to accommodate vessels of a larger class and this is a matter which ought to be pressed most earnestly upon the attention of the general government

On the resources of Coos Bay the committee make a most interesting report. They say 'The quantity of coal that is conveniently accessible from the navigable waters of Coos Bay is almost incalculable Within an area of ten miles of the bay there is not less than 75 000 acres of good coal land which will produce, from the strata generally worked, 450 million tons of coal This is an estimate of the production of only one seam while in some parts of this coal field there are known to be as many as six workable veins The area of lands known to contain coal, but not fully prospected lying in the vicinity of the bay, may be estimated at 250 000 acres and at no great distance east a vein of 11 feet in thickness is reported said by persons who have tested it to be of superior quality, suitable for the manufacture of gas, and for use in the foundry or forge With such improvement of our harbor as is now contemplated, the coal of Coos Bay can successfully compete with that of any other part of the world The timber of the country is of great variety the forests of fir in the vicinity of the bay are said to cover 100 000 acres, and much of this land will produce from 100 000 to 200 000 feet per acre while the white cedar maple, ash and other varieties of timber are in large supply and unsurpassed in quality The country is also an excellent one for fruit and since the introduction of improved methods of drying a lucrative business is being established in that line The general agricultural resources of the place are also large, and may be developed to an incalculable extent Growth of other industries should create a market for all the agricultural products of which the surrounding country is capable, and such will be the result if the harbor be improved so as to allow the commerce of the bay to reach the magnitude it may easily attain

There is also a favorable report on the practicability of a railroad from Coos Bay to Roseburg The distance will not exceed eighty miles, the coast range may be crossed without encountering any extraordinary grades, and the cost of constructing a railroad would not be excessive Such an enterprise with the improvement of Coos Bay harbor would greatly shorten the time and distance to San Francisco for the whole southern portion of the state

In reproducing an outline of this report we must add our testimony to its general accuracy, and to the importance of that now remote and isolated section of our state We believe that the natural resources of Coos are greater by far than those of any other county of Oregon They are amply sufficient for a population of a quarter of a million, and the time will come when this hitherto little known county of Oregon will have a developed industry and wealth equal to those of any part of the great industrial region of Pennsylvania

SHERMAN ON THURMAN

We are not able to speak with highest commendation of Secretary Sherman as a finance minister for though he is well established in sound and fundamental principles he is so far a politician as to allow himself to be warped by the "Ohio idea of finance, and through fear of unpopularity has not fully met the fooleries of the greenback fiat lunatics and the short silver dollar men Therefore he has not had courage at the proper time to tell the people boldly what they ought to know and what they will be forced eventually to learn But still he has recently made a speech which contains many good points though they are timidly stated We refer to his speech delivered at Toledo on the 26th ultimo It was intended as a reply to Senator Thurman's effort in favor of an increase of greenbacks and cheap silver dollars. Sherman sees clearly the destiny of silver He recognizes the fact that the real value of the silver dollar [illegible] 90 cents and says frankly that if silver is coined at less than its market value and issued without limit, it will as surely displace gold as water will displace air Also that the silver dollar must when the same becomes abundant depreciate below the gold dollar in proportion to the short value of the silver it contains and that unless its weight be increased we shall have to adopt the single standard of silver, like the Chinese and other Asiatic nations" This is exactly the truth It is an accurate forecast of our financial destiny under the silver programme both as a policy and a duty Our paper currency must have steady value, and this it can only have by bringing it up to the point of convertibility with gold and holding it there From a less valuable paper currency it is obvious that only injury can result Irredeemable paper is always and under all conditions a curse Thurman proposed to issue over three hundred millions of additional greenbacks in lieu of the national bank notes to be called in But this inflation of greenbacks would postpone the day of resumption and by consequence cause a depreciation at once of the whole volume of paper currency It would plunge us again into the bog of irredeemability, from which we are just now after a great struggle escaping It would help nothing and would produce positive evils Besides the supreme court would certainly pronounce against any additional issue of greenbacks Our finances are at last getting into good condition and need mainly to be let alone

TIME FOR FULFILLMENT

Both parties have been so forward in condemning the legislation and the practices under which the expenses of the state government during the last eight years have been so largely increased that now is the very time for their representatives in the legislature to vie with each other in lopping off the unconstitutional salaries and emoluments Every state officer has his share of them including the justices of the supreme court Heretofore the constitution has been overridden without remorse Let the higher law of party platforms now be appealed to, since the constitution is a thing of naught, and let emulous partisans contend with each other for the honor of being foremost in carrying out the promises made in the respective platforms Great sums can be saved if the representatives will only do half what they are pledged to Cut off the extra allowances paid to the governor abolish those additional salaries paid to the secretary of state apply the knife to all those fees provided for the state treasurer and allow him only the compensation which the constitution gives him amputate the extra constitutional allowance to each of the judges correct the abuses which have grown up with the state printing make new provisions as to admission of insane into the asylum and provide a new and more thorough system of contracting the labor of the state's prison These are the principal heads Both parties are pledged to all the reforms which this recapitulation implies

Prize Rhyming.

A cask of Cyprus wine having been offered for a perfect rhyme with the name of the island, Philip Gilbert Hammerton, the well known art writer, sends in the following and claims the prize

"There was an old woman in Cyprus
A vixenish one and a viperous
But she caught the fever
Which silenced forever
That vixenish woman of Cyprus

But this is hardly as good as the rhyme made by the celebrated scholar Richard Bentley, with the word Timbuctoo Boasting that he could find a rhyme for any word and being challenged to rhyme Timbuctoo he promptly produced the following

If I were a cassowary
On the plains of Timbuctoo,
I could eat a missionary
Flesh and bones and hymn book too

The San Francisco Argonaut well says that the man who will take 20,000 acres of land, unproductive for want of water, bring water to it in sufficient quantity for irrigation and divide it into one thousand parts, and so dispose of it that an industrious man with a working family may go upon [illegible] and in time acquire the title to it making of it a home for himself and family, will have builded for himself a monument loftier and more enduring than that of James Lick with his observatory, his baths and bronzes, or Michael Reese with his $50 000 library or A T Stewart with his memorial church of marble and stained glass windows

We must commend unreservedly the aim and purpose of a communication in regard to the safety of the state funds, published in another place in this paper It is the duty of the legislature to take action upon this matter For many years there have been rumors that large sums of money belonging to the state have been in other hands than those of the treasurer and that the profits thereon to the treasurer have been large And it is certain there has always been a great deal of anxiety on the part of candidates to get an eight-hundred dollar office. What is the reason? The legislature may find it not impossible to guess

Gen Lane is at Salem a candidate for the senate, and though he will be seventy seven next December he insists he is as young as anybody The general has been dead most of the time for the last eighteen years, during which period he has probably renewed his youth till he now comes out as fresh as the best octogenarian of them all

The chief hero of Grenada, Miss was the telegraph operator, William Redding who was at his post day and night working with a tippet covered with carbolic acid around his neck But the carbolic acid did not save him He died on the 2d he and his partner, Marshall going down together

British Columbia gets a sharp rebuke from the Toronto Globe in a long editorial for its legislative measure to tax the Chinese out of the country The Globe says it violates a treaty between Britain and China is high handed injurious and without effect

Both branches of the legislature organized promptly yesterday This expedition will start the voting on senator a week earlier than if the organization had not been effected on the opening day

Timely Democratic Humor.

[From Eugene City Guard.]

We have had enough ruralism in the election of senators It is quite time now that we have something else and the people expect it at the hands of the coming legislature If the Democratic members shall yield to the pitiful pleadings of some patriotic cuss who has spent his time and means in seeking political preferment and shall elect such a man to the U S senate simply to save him from a worse fate, to keep him from committing suicide or becoming an inmate of the insane asylum then they as well as all others may expect a Waterloo two years hence

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 10, 1878.

CITY.

Two Courts—Two J. P's.—Madison precinct at present seems to be peculiarly favored in the way of dispensing justice. The law provides that each precinct is entitled to one justice of the peace; but Madison has two. There are now in that precinct two separate and distinct justices' courts, each running independent of the other, each claiming to have equal authority, equal jurisdiction and at the same time to be the true court. Such in reality is the true condition of affairs in that precinct. Justice H. W. Davis presides over one of these courts, and Justice C. C. Crich over the other. The circumstances under which this state of things was brought about are as follows: Last June Mr. Crich was a candidate for the position of justice of the peace for Madison precinct. The law says: "A person is not eligible to the office of justice of the peace unless he be a citizen of the United States, a qualified elector under the constitution of this state, and a resident of the precinct wherein he is elected for the period of six months next preceding his election." Mr. Crich was elected, duly qualified as a justice of the peace, and entered upon the duties of the position on the first Monday in July, as required by law. Mr. H. W. Davis had served as justice of the peace for Madison precinct for the past four years. It was claimed that Mr. Crich was not eligible to hold the office, on the ground that he had not resided in the precinct for more than 30 days next preceding the election. When a formal demand was made for the books and papers connected with the office, by Mr. Crich, Mr. Davis refused to give them up, claiming that his successor in office was not eligible at the time of the election, and therefore could not hold the office under the law. Believing thus, Mr. Davis instituted quo warranto proceedings against Mr. Crich. Meantime Crich began a mandamus suit to compel Davis to turn over to him all the books and papers connected with the office. Crich also filed a demurrer to Davis' proceedings and the matter was argued before Judge Shattuck in chambers, who overruled the demurrer. A motion was then made by Crich's attorney for leave to amend the demurrer, which was denied. Before the suits—quo warranto and mandamus—could be disposed of, Mr. Crich had perfected an appeal and filed his bond in the office of the county clerk. Thus matters must rest until the meeting of the supreme court next December. In the meantime Mr. Crich continues to discharge the duties of a justice of the peace and to exercise the authority and jurisdiction belonging to the office. Mr. Davis also does the same. The law says that "a justice of the peace shall hold the office for the term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified." As Mr. Crich (so it is alleged) was ineligible, there was no election and consequently no successor chosen and no vacancy exists. Such being the case the county court can make no appointment. Things in that precinct are decidedly mixed. Happy Madison precinct.

Drowned.—A correspondent writing from Drain station under date of September 8th, sends the following: At a quarter past five this afternoon our quiet village was aroused by the alarm being given that Milton Perkins, a telegraph operator of this place, was under the saw logs in the mill dam just above town. A general rush was made for the scene, arriving there it was found that he had been taken out, but life was extinct. Everything possible was done to bring him to life, but to no avail. The vital spark had forever fled. He was a very exemplary young man, about 19 years of age, of good steady habits, and well beloved by all who knew him. Deceased was engaged in teaching school a few miles below town, and was spending the Sabbath with his parents. Their grief has no bounds, but they have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad and sudden bereavement.

Pacific Coast Patents. — The following patents have been issued to inventors of the Pacific coast: Thos Clement Hammond, Sacramento, ratchet wrenches; Johan Hansen, San Francisco, gripers for wire rope railways; E. P. Williams and Lewis Worsham, Alameda, processes for welding copper; Charles O. Begley, San Francisco, mining riffles; Sam'l E. Hillard, Reno, Nev., railway rail joints; Carl Hinz, San Francisco, blind-wiring machines; Roswell E. Morey and Thomas H. McDonald, San Francisco, berry boxes; John Patten, Tomales, Cal., harness saddles; John Upstone, San Francisco, metallic wheelbarrows; Tolliver A. Wilson, San Francisco, washing machines; Wm. Stack, Oakland, Cal., devices for driving nails under water. Trade marks—California Cigar Box Co., San Francisco, cigars.

Head Cut.—A man employed to drive the beer wagon connected with Humbel's brewery met with a very painful accident yesterday. He was taking some kegs of beer from the wagon, when the horses started up suddenly. One of the kegs fell from the top, and the almost knife-like edge of the "chime" struck the driver on the forehead inflicting a terrible gash. The wound bled very profusely and the man soon became weak from the loss of blood. Medical assistance was summoned and the injured man's wound was dressed.

A Splendid Roadway.—The Oregon Steamship Company is now constructing a splendid roadway leading up from the dock just beyond the office and near the west side depot. The roadway is 50 feet in width and consists of sawed timbers one foot wide and four inches thick, set up on the edge. The road starts from the dock on a level with the lower floor, and reaches by a very easy, gradual grade the street in front of the Clarendon Hotel.

Painful Accident.—Mr. J. P. Feaster, who lives over on Columbia Slough, met with a very painful accident last Wednesday. He was engaged in chopping wood and, making a mis-stroke, the ax came down and split his ankle and shin very severely. The ax cut a gash for the full width of the blade clear to the bone. Dr. Raffety is the attending physician. Mr. Feaster is unable to leave his bed, and it is not improbable that he will lose his foot.

Trial Trip.—The O. S. N. Co's new and handsome steamer S. G. Reed, having received the finishing touches, made a trial trip yesterday afternoon. The steamer passed up and down in front of the city, and was an object of general observation and, we may add, complimentary comment. The S. G. Reed is one of the largest, handsomest and most rapid boats belonging to the O. S. N. Co's large fleet of boats.

Relief Committee.—Let us help them by going to the Taylor Street Methodist Church this evening and witness a first class exhibition of Palestine Views. The daily papers of San Francisco speak in the most complimentary terms of this lecture, and four hundred dollars was received for a single exhibition of these views in that city in behalf of the yellow fever sufferers. Go early, as the house will be full. COM.

Lectures.—Dr. Paul M. Brenan, the well known popular and eloquent lecturer, will deliver a course of lectures during the present week at Oro Fino Hall. He will lecture on Friday evening, Sept. 13, on the subject of "Laws of Life and Health, or How to Live and what to Live for." On Saturday night he will lecture to gentlemen only on the subject of "Manhood." Admission to both lectures free.

Receiving Machinery.—The little steamer Latona, which was built at Freeport, W. T., to run on the Lewis river trade in place of the Calliope, has been towed to this city, to receive the boiler, machinery and finishing touches. The Latona now lies just below the foot of Ash street. When finished she will be one of the most handsome little crafts on these waters.

Stopped for the Night.—The steamship Great Republic arrived at Astoria at 10 o'clock Sunday evening, and sailed for this port yesterday morning. On reaching the head of Swan island, a short distance below the city, the steamer stopped for the night. The passengers took a river boat and came up to the city. The Great Republic will no doubt reach her dock to-day.

Expressman Injured.—Mr. Dougherty, the well-known expressman who resides at the corner of Stark and East Park streets, met with a very painful accident yesterday afternoon. His team became unmanageable and started to run away. Before proceeding far, Mr. Dougherty was thrown out. He struck the ground violently and sustained some painful bruises. He was conveyed to his home where he now lies in a critical condition. It is sincerely hoped that Mr. Dougherty's injuries are not serious, and that he will soon be able to resume his labor.

Jumped Overboard.—On Saturday night a passenger on the Great Republic disappeared suddenly from the stern of the steamer, at the same time crying aloud, which attracted attention. A boat manned by six men was lowered immediately, but put back at once, the sea running too high to admit their remaining out. The suicide, for such he certainly was, is supposed to be a Swede, but the name we did not learn.

Reception.—About fifty couples assembled at the residence of Mr. Levi Knott, East Portland last evening to pay respects to Mr. and Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Warren, the ladies being relatives of Mr. Knott. Dancing was the main feature of amusement. Prof. Brauner's band furnished music. About 1 o'clock the festivities came to a close.

Robbery.—Last Saturday the railroad depot at St. Joe was entered by burglars during the absence of the agent, and the cash box, containing $150 received for passenger fares and freight, stolen. A fellow named Glenn was arrested yesterday on suspicion of having been connected with the robbery.

Heavy Fires.—The whole northern heavens last evening were lighted up with the heavy fires which were raging in the timber some miles beyond Albina. From appearances the woods must have been on fire for a mile or more. The destruction to the timber must have been great.

Lines Down.—The telegraph lines have been prostrated south in consequence of heavy fires in the timber along the route. We did not receive any through dispatches until after twelve o'clock last night which accounts for the meagre news by lightning Crossed Over.—A dispatch from Astoria yesterday states that the steamship Oregon crossed over the bar outward bound at 2:15 o'clock, P. M.

Steamer Elder.—The steamer Elder will sail from San Francisco for Portland this (Tuesday) forenoon with freight and passengers.

PERSONAL.

Says the S.F. Call of the 5th inst.: "Judge Deady, of the United States bench at Portland, Oregon, an old settler on this coast, is in the city."

Among the passengers who arrived on the steamship Ancon, which arrived here yesterday morning, is Brig. Gen. Henry S. Briggs, who for some time has been sojourning in California. Gen. Briggs comes to the Pacific coast on official business connected with the federal government, he being one of the United States general appraisers. The subject of this notice has an honorable record as a soldier. Immediately on the outbreak of the war of the rebellion he raised a company of volunteers in his native county of Berkshire Mass. He joined forces with the Eighth Massachusetts, which was the second to leave New England for the land of Dixie, being out one day behind the "famous Sixth," which ran the gauntlet at Baltimore. The general, while gallantly leading his command at the bloody battle of Fair Oaks, was severely wounded in both legs and laid up in hospital for some weeks. On his convalescence he was promoted to the office of brigadier general, and again went to the front, continuing in active service until the close of the war. Gen. Briggs is a son of the late George N. Briggs, who for twelve years represented Berkshire county in congress, and for a number of terms was elected governor of Massachusetts.

YELLOW FEVER SUFFERERS.

ADJOURNED MEETING OF THE RELIEF COMMITTEE.

An adjourned meeting of the committee appointed by the citizens, was held last evening at the council chamber.

W. Jackson, chairman, and Joseph Bachman, secretary, present.

Minutes of the meetings held on the 6th and 7th inst., were read and approved.

The committee on collections reported the following amounts collected up to this date:

First district	$3,137 50
Second district	900 00
Third district	487 50
Total	$4,525 00

A communication from Rev. J. F. Fierens, V. G., was received and placed on file.

A communication signed "Linn City," was laid on the table for the present.

The following communication was read:

DALLAS, Polk Co., Sept. 7, 1878.

Hon. H. Failing, Portland, Oregon—DEAR SIR: I inclose $5, which you will please add to the fund for the relief of yellow fever sufferers of the south.
Yours truly, WM. HOWE.

The communication was received, and the secretary instructed to acknowledge the gift and return thanks to the donor.

The following communication was received:

To the Citizens' Committee for the relief of the sufferers of the South: GENTLEMEN—As a number of the theatrical profession believe that it is in their power to add to the funds already collected by you to aid in relieving sufferers of the south, and desiring to offer their services for the purpose, I have the pleasure to announce that the Wilton & Cleaves Dramatic Co., in conjunction with Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Wade, R. C. White, Richard Clinton and others, tender their services for this purpose on Friday evening next, at New Market theater, and request that your honorable committee shall either act jointly or appoint a sub-committee to see that the funds raised on this occasion shall be properly applied for the object intended.

I have made an estimate of the expenses for the occasion, but feel convinced that should the committee appointed by your body exert their influence, the expenses would be reduced fully one-half, or probably would be entirely donated. The following is the total estimate of expenses, $69

I trust that you may see fit to countenance this proposition and appoint a committee to co operate with us in making an entertainment on Friday evening a success financially, as I can assure you it will be professionally. I have the honor to be, respectfully yours, F. WILTON.

The secretary was authorized to send the following response:

Mr. F. Wilton: DEAR SIR—I am instructed by the committee to acknowledge with thanks the very generous offer contained in your letter of this date, and to state that the chairman of this committee is authorized to designate a person to take charge of the receipts. J. BACHMAN, Secretary.

It was moved and carried that the subject matter of the communication signed "Linn City" be referred to the officers of the committee.

CIRCULAR ADDRESS.

The following address was read and unanimously adopted:

To the Citizens of Oregon and the neighboring Territories: The duty imposed on the committee appointed by the citizens of Portland to solicit subscriptions for the relief of our suffering countrymen in the southwest was intended to be local in its nature, but inasmuch as this committee has received suggestions from other localities that it might extend its appeal to those outside of our city limits, with useful results, I desire to give notice that the committee will cheerfully receive and remit any donations of money designed for the relief of the sufferers from the pestilence now prevailing in the south.

Such donations, whether from towns, counties or individuals, will be acknowledged by mail and through the public press, and sent to any desired point where there may be any responsible officer or association to disburse the same.

Remittances can be made to any member of the committee or to the treasurer, Hon. Henry Failing.
W. JACKSON, Chairman of Committee.

[Newspapers throughout the state please publish the above.]

On motion the committee adjourned until next Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, unless called to meet sooner by the chairman.

INDIAN POW-WOW.

CONCLUSION OF THE COUNCIL BETWEEN GEN. HOWARD AND CHIEF MOSES—THE RESULT IS VERY SATISFACTORY—INDIANS CONSENT TO GO ON A RESERVATION.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

WALLULA, Sept. 8, 1878.

The steamer Spokane has just arrived here having on board Gen. Howard and staff and, Gen. Mizner's battalion of artillery and infantry. A council was held with Chief Moses and Gen. Howard yesterday afternoon and this morning at Priest's rapids. Moses was present on the part of the Indians, who stated they were willing to go on a reservation of their choice and would live there forever. They will not go on a reserve remote from their country. The territory they want lies east of the Cascade mountains, running to the mouth of the Spokane river, then down the river to White Bluffs, thence across the Columbia to a point fifteen miles above the mouth of the Yakima. Gen. Howard stated he desired in the presence of all assembled to thank Moses for the remarkable fidelity he had shown and his efforts to keep the peace at all times. Moses took no part in the late hostile movement, and his influence and power kept the hostile movement from breaking out among his men.

Moses stated that he requested land of the government, and the land he would like, and if given him and his people he would remain there forever. He was always a friend to the whites but he had been badly misrepresented by his enemies. He would add to his strength if the authorities at Washington would give him the reservation he now chose. All northern Indians would join him. He is their recognized chieftain, and his followers, as allies of the government, would prevent further trouble in his country. It was not his Indians who killed Perkins' family, but two Palouse Indians. Homely, chief of the Umatillas, said his people would join with Moses and be as before—firm friends to the whites.

Howard said he would forward their request to the great father at Washington for a reserve, and referring to the murder of the Perkins family, said he wanted these murderers given up. He called on Moses and his men, the Umatillas and all others, to help find the murderers and deliver them to justice. They must be punished for the crime.

The council passed off harmoniously, and the Indians appeared well satisfied with the result. They all renewed assurances of friendship.

TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC.

WE WISH TO SAY THAT CANCER CAN BE cured without the use of the knife or the loss of blood, in proof of which we would respectfully refer the afflicted to the honorable names attached to the following certificates—not foreign or irresponsible names, but your neighbors and friends, with whom you may consult and advise, and by this means assure yourselves whether or no, there was any quackery, trickery or humbuggery practiced in their cases. We could refer to many other cases treated in this valley, but deem it unnecessary. Also to a number of cases treated years ago in the Western States and California. Birth Marks and Wens removed. Tumors and Chronic Sore Legs cured on the same principle as Cancer, to wit: No payment is required until a cure is effected. Examinations and consultations free. The undersigned being considerable of the time away from home on professional business, may be consulted by letter at Salem, Oregon.
WM GREENE.

Salem, Oregon, Aug. 28, 1878.

I hereby certify that Mr. W. Greene, of Salem, Oregon, removed a dark spot or birth mark on my daughter's face. It was taken off without the use of the knife or loss of blood. It was on her face from her infancy. It was covered with coarse white hair near half an inch long. B. S. WARD.

SALEM, Oregon.

This is to certify that Mr. Wm. Greene, of Salem, Oregon, treated my wife for cancer in December, 1877. The treatment was without the use of the knife or loss of blood. The cure has every appearance of being permanent. E. S. WARD.

SALEM, Oregon.

This is to certify that Wm. Greene, of Salem, Oregon, treated my brother, H. I. Hall, and his wife, of Buena Vista, Polk Co., Oregon, for cancer, and to all appearance the cure is permanent. The treatment was without the use of the knife or loss of blood. The operation was performed in January, A. D. 1878. I would heartily recommend Mr. W. Greene to all thus afflicted. L. M. HALL,
Sheriff of Polk Co., Oregon.

FRUIT FARM, MARION Co., Oregon.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby certify that my mother had a cancer on her face just under the eye for two years, and it was growing very fast. She employed Mr. W. Greene, of Salem, Oregon, November, 1877, and he removed it in just one week without the use of the knife or loss of blood, and with but little pain, and is to all appearance permanently cured. Also that a daughter of Mr. J. S. Vaughn, of Butteville, Marion county, Oregon, had a cancer in the corner of the eye, which Mr. W. Greene took out at the same time, with complete success, and is well. I do recommend him to any person that is afflicted with cancer.

NOTE.—Both the above cases were hereditary.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Acute Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES

to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door
